FAREWELL SERVICES

Of Rev. W. H. Coleman at Roseville, Illinois.

Sunday, April 29th, farewell services were conducted in the Christian church in honor of the departing pastor, Rev. W. H. Coleman. Lord's day in the morning, a large crowd greeted the beloved pastor and were favored with an able and touching sermon on love. After the solemn observance of the Lord's Supper in commemoration of the death of the gracious Redeemer, Mr. E. B. Wickersham, holding in his hand a beautifully bound "Nave's Topical Bible," walked forward to the pulpit and on behalf of the congregation impressively addressed the pastor as follows: "Today you stand before us as our pastor. Tomorrow this relation will have ceased and your past deeds of love will form a pleasant part of our church history. For one and one-half years we believe you have faithfully and conscientiously done your duty. During this brief time you have been called to share joys and sorrows, triumphs and tribulations. When the hand of death claimed our loved ones your words of comfort and tender sympathy have helped to dispel the darkness and strengthen our faith in the Savior of the world. Your daily walk has given no occasion for us to doubt but that your precepts and life were one. And hence, it is not strange that we have learned to love you and that this parting makes us sad. At times our interest may not have been ebbing but your gracious tact and cheering words have brought us back to our duty. It is impossible for us to express the affectionate regard in which we hold you and your estimable family, but in the name of the Roseville Christian church I am requested to present you this token of our lasting friendship and brotherly love. We could not consent to part with you without leaving in your hands some memorial, however trivial, of deep and abiding gratitude for your unceasing efforts to benefit us and bring us nearer the Christ we all love so dearly. When in future days you look upon this memento, let it be a pleasant token of the deepest love and reverence of your brethren in Christ at Roseville."

In response to this beautiful address Rev. Coleman spoke a few words of deep gratitude for this manifestation of esteem. He was so thoroughly surprised and rejoiced that when he arose, he was able only to speak a few words, so deeply was he moved by this token of brotherly love.

At 7:30 an immense crowd assembled at the Christian church to attend the union farewell services arranged in honor of Rev. Coleman. All the churches were represented. Each pastor on behalf of his congregation spoke warm words of appreciation of Rev. Coleman and genuine regret at his leaving. The music was inspiring throughout, the orchestra adding much to the value of the service.

Rev. Coleman leaves in Roseville a host of warm friends, not alone among the religious people of the city, but also among our citizens in general, and wherever his lot may be cast, he and his family have the best wishes of the entire community. —Roseville (Ill.) Citizen.

Base Ball Benefit

The boys netted $20 at the armory last night from the sale of refreshments and dance tickets, and the amount will be turned over to the treasurer of the baseball club. The night was rather cool for the sale of ice cream, but was most favorable for the dancers. Charles Miller and Professor Pike very kindly supplied the music for the dance. This was the first movement to raise funds for the newly organized baseball club, but should not be the last one, as the boys will need quite a sum of money to properly equip themselves for effective work.

Are They Greenhorns?

The Hillsboro delegates to the state convention will have to take along some one to introduce them to the democratic leaders. The majority of them are total strangers in state political circles. —Tampa Tribune.

It doesn't follow because for the past decade or more certain men have ruled the "political roost" of Tampa and Hillsboro county and have been constantly before the public in politics that the former "ins" are now "outs," that the men elected in the late "turn-over" in that section are not the equal in every particular of the men who preceded them, except in political finesse, which at times is not always of the correct and honorable kind. Men who are thoroughly known at home, and their capabilities go with home indorsement, need no further introduction to the public and will soon demonstrate in public how much of greenhorns they are.
